

SUNBIRDS.

The duty on men servants brought $70,000 to the British Treasury last year.

Franciscan friars have gone into the wine business extensively at Los Angeles, Cal.

A Tennessee hunter fired at a bird, and winged two passengers in a distant railroad train.

Mr. Ernest Longfellow, son of the poet, is exhibiting in Boston a large allegorical painting called "The Choice of Youth."

Some companies have cancelled their engagements in Ohio, O., on account of the prevalence of small-pox, and it is reported that objection is made to holding the coming session of Parliament there for the same reason.

The Empress of Russia, who has been spending the winter at Cannes, near Nice, for the benefit of her health, is about to start for St. Petersburg. Her physicians, believing her recovery to be hopeless, no longer oppose her desire to return home.

On Thursday, January 28, the thirty-five gave a performance by a company from New Haven, the members of the troupe with a handbills, which cost $22. The presentation ceremonies occupied about half an hour, which was deducted from their pay.

Turkey, lately scourged by war, is the prey of famine. If any American citizen persons should be found, in one day, dead of starvation, a thrill of horror would run through the nation; but as the city where this has occurred is Constantinople, few notice it.

The richest youthful heiress of the day is Miss Maynard, of Boston, O., Mrs. Robert Maynard. She has $200,000 a year in land, and large accumulations of money. Miss Maynard made her debut at a magnificent ball at her seat in Essex last month.

The Duke of Edinburgh has resigned from the Royal Academy of Music. He suggested some changes in the organization of that body, but the professional men in the Committee objected, fancying that a preponderating influence would be given to amateurs.

It is said that a negro slave who had started when a child, distinguished himself so well that he could kill the driver; and they lauded when the master gave him a new whip, an old black one, and the scared despot plunged into a pond to escape the bullet.

An Indian maiden has been driven out by her tribe in Oregon, because she married a Chinese man. A San Francisco Chinaman has lost the respect of his countrymen by marrying a negro woman. A Virginia man whipped a negro for marrying a white woman.

A Chicago man has sold, with his regiments, the house in which he was born, and is now living there. He says that must be a mistake, as he had left his home a few days before, and she had not said anything about a journey; but the clerk insisted that he knew her, and that she was in the house. The fact was that she had died.

The Divorce Committee in France has pronounced in favor of divorce for five years' separation, by mutual consent when the wife is turned into a beggar, or means of existence like that. Forgers who desire to compete for the prizes must send their works printed or in manuscript, before the 1st of January, 1861, to the Ministry of Interior at Brussels. The manuscript which obtains the prize must be printed during the year which follows that in which the prize has been granted. The works offered for competition will be examined by a committee chosen by His Majesty, which will number seven or nine Belgians and four foreigners of different countries.

Adults play with marbles in Jasper County, Ga., and the game is one in which black and white marbles, but when Clem Riley, a negro, remarked in the midst of the diversion that a colored debating society met that night, and invited his white friends to attend, it was seen that he was considered presumptuous. A negro, however, was summoned and frequently taken in court, the insulted gentlemen went to the place of meeting and found that the question under discussion was: "Which is the most foolish article, a gun or a dog?" Mr. Clem has withdrawn from the public meeting to a quiet room, where he was courting Miss Anna Jeffries, while a white woman entered him, fired at him, recovered, and sent him to the hospital in the woods. He had his garments washed, but the Court seemed to less sight of Clem's wrongs in the sum of the trial, and the negro had small chance for justice.
